

Mitten began as a plastic production company with one extruder and has evolved over the past 50 years into the successful business it is today. Part of Mitten's success can be attributed to its unwavering focus on the ever-changing demands in the marketplace. The continual development of new products, the implementation of leading-edge technology and the use of advanced materials have enabled Mitten Inc. to supply a broad range of quality exterior cladding products.

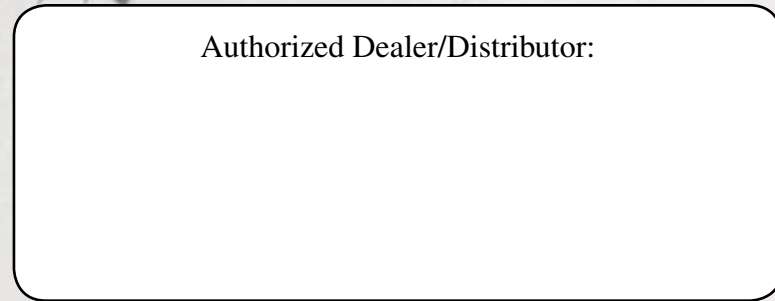

At Mitten, we care about what we leave behind for future generations. We are continually updating and improving our products to make them more efficient, safer and easier to maintain. Today we're adding greener to that list!
